To Whom It May Concern:

I worked with Jerry from 2005 - 2010 as a coworker and a team-mate. I had the great pleasure of witnessing Jerry's intuitive and creative style during this time period.

Jerry is a hard-working self-starter who invariably understands exactly what is needed for a project to succeed, and how to get it done quickly, and effectively. He is gifted at trouble shooting and problem solving as well as exceeding expectations, and thinking outside the box.

Jerry has a knack for producing a product that is above and beyond the original vision. He understands what is needed for a project to succeed and is willing to do whatever necessary to make that happen. During my five years working with Jerry, I cannot remember an instance in which he missed any deadline or came to a problem he couldn't solve or work through.

Mr. Cutchens is an organized, resourceful, creative, and solution-oriented person who was frequently able to come up with new and innovative approaches to his projects. He functioned well working on projects alone but also was an invaluable and effective team member. It was my honor to be on his team.

Jerry has superior written and verbal communication skills. He gets along extremely well with supervisory staff as well as colleagues at his own level. He is highly respected, as both a person and a professional, by colleagues, suppliers, and customers alike.

In closing, as detailed above, based on my experience working with him, I can unreservedly recommend Jerry Cutchens to you for any marketing position. You would be lucky to have him on your team.

Sincerely,
Delaina Bomhoff, CAP
